

WILSONIAN

1984 ULSONIAN

A black and white photograph of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright glow and reflecting on the water. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted reeds or grasses. In the background, a dark, forested hill or shoreline is visible under a pale sky.

The 1984 Ulsonian staff dedicates this book to Mrs. Hamilton for all her help, time, patience and care for her students, and to Mr. Barnhouse for his help with the senior class and his teaching discipline.

EDITORS: Brad Johnson, Wendy Knierim, Erin Russell, and Jennifer Denham.

Death Opens the Door to Life Evermore

We live a short while on earth below,
 Reluctant to die for we do not know,
 Just what "dark" is all about
 And so we view it with fear and doubt,
 Not certain of what is around the bend
 We look on death as the final end
 To all that made us a mortal being
 And yet there lies just beyond our seeing
 A beautiful life so full and complete
 That we should leave with hurrying feet
 To walk with God by sacred streams
 Amid beauty and peace beyond our dreams —
 For all who believe in the RISEN LORD
 Have been assured of this reward,
 And death for them is just "graduation"
 To a higher realm of wide elevation —
 For life on earth is a transient affair,
 Just a few brief years in which to prepare
 For a life that is free from pain and tears
 Where time is not counted by hours or years —
 For death is only the method God chose
 To colonize heaven with the souls of those
 Who by their apprenticeship on earth
 Proved worthy to dwell in the land of new birth —
 So death is not sad . . . it's a time for elation,
 A joyous transition . . . the soul's emigration
 Into a place where the soul's SAFE and FREE
 To live with God through ETERNITY!

For You

The peace of great doors be for you.
 Wait at the knobs, at the panel oblongs;
 wait for the great hinges.
 The peace of great churches be for you,
 Where the players of loft pipe organs
 practice old lovely fragments, alone.
 The peace of great books be for you,
 Stains of pressed clover leaves on pages,
 bleach of the light of years held in leather.
 The peace of great mountains be for you,
 The sleep and the eyesight of eagles,
 sheet mist shadows and the long look across
 The peace of great loves be for you,
 rain, soak these roots; wind, shatter the dry rot.
 Bars of sunlight, grips of the earth; hug these.
 The peace of ghosts be for you, Phantoms of night-gray eyes ready to go to the fog-star dumps, to the fire-white doors.

Sadly missed by the Senior class.

As the sun goes down on another school year, we reflect on the memories we all share, the football games, homecoming, the prom, the list goes on and on. But for seniors, the biggest night is graduation night. The night that ends a high school career but begins a lifetime.

We shall miss each other as time goes on, but we will never forget the moments we shared.

We wish happiness to all, and good luck to future graduating classes.

All our love,
The 1984 Ulsonian staff,
Brad Johnson & Jennifer Denham, Editors
